AN OPEN LETTER.

To our little brothers and sisters at St. Clairsville and vicinity, who suffer from the effects of the recent cyclone, greeting:

We, the children of Uniontown and vicinity, desire to make expression of our sympathy and good will toward you. As a token that our sympathy is real and heartfelt, we each contribute through the fund established by Mr. J. P.
Harvey, representative of THE CHRONICLE FUND, a portion of our much prized and hard-earned savings for your relief. Although the sums are small, we give with great heart and kindest wishes, and we remain

P. T. ROSCOE, the well-known stone mason of this place, fell from the hay fork of Jacob Martin, on Saturday afternoon, receiving painful injuries.

CHARLIE NEITZEL, of this place, a brakeman on the C. & W. & W., had his right hand mangled by the flanging apparatus while coupling cars, on Thursday.

OVER fifty conversions are reported the result thus far of the revival in progress in the M. E. church at Woods-field under the direction of Miss Ada Sherman.

The commissioners held a session on Monday to hear the flanging annexed by case, and on Tuesday went to the infirm to consult regarding the rebuilding of the barn.

The coal miners at Bellaire and in the sixth mining district have made a uniform rate for mining which is an advance of five cents over old rate. The operators at some of the mines refuse to pay the advance.

The Centerville Normal will deservedly have a large attendance, since so many branches, common and higher, including Short Hand, Book-keeping, Vocal Music, Latin, Greek, &c., will be taught for half price.

FRANK BRANDENBURG, a son of Jacob Brandenburg, of Flushing, after an illness of about 30 hours, died at his home in Loraine, on the 28th ult., aged 38 years. A wife is left to mourn his loss. His remains were interred at Flushing.

MISS EMMA POWELL, only daughter of the late Geo. Powell, of Wayne township, who has been in very poor health for over a year, died from consumption on Friday. Deceased was highly esteemed by those who enjoyed her acquaintance.

DECORATION DAY, Monday, May 30, will be observed in St. Clairsville. The exercises will be under the auspices of Drummond Post 263, G. A. R. The oration will be delivered from new concrete steps by Rev. D. C. Stewart, of the United Presbyterian church.

THE Barnesville banks are wrestling over the custody of the school funds.
The First National Bank has offered a year, but upon the organization of the Board of Education this spring, Dr. J. A.
Jenkins, a member of the Board of Directors of the Peoples' Bank, was elected its treasurer, and the old bank has the check of the retiring treasurer, Dr.
Baker, for the amount to be transferred to the new treasurer, payment was declined it is said on the ground that the deposit was likely to be removed. The matter has been brought to court by the First National and a temporary injunction has been allowed to restrain the removal of the funds. The old bank alleging that a contract exists between themselves and the Board of Education, whereby they are entitled to the custody of the funds. Judge Kelly on behalf of the Peoples' Bank has filed a motion to dissolve the injunction and the case is set for hearing on Friday of this week.

In view of her departure, the church and a number of Sabbath school scholars, headed by Supt. A. T. McKelvey, met at Young Peoples' meeting in the M. E. church, Monday evening, and presented Miss Jessie Morton with a silver water pitcher and gold-lined silver card receiver. Supt.
McKelvey making the presentation speech.

The pitcher bears the following inscription:
